

KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT

TAKE INVENTORY OF WHAT YOU KNOW...

The goal here is to assess how much you know about your current Senators and Congressional Representatives. Don't be ashamed if you don't know the answers. This is a benchmark for you to know how much you need to know to vote. The good news is that you have until 110618 to learn the answers to these 14 questions so you can make an informed decision. You can also take these questions to any of their events and simply ask them.

What are the local elections in your area this year? 2018
Who is your current senator and what is his/her party affiliation?
How did they vote on the Affordable Healthcare Act (AKA Obama Care)?
What is their position on Student Loan Debt?
What presidential candidate did they endorse in the 2016 election?
What is their political agenda? Goals?
How are they currently voting in the Senate?
How have they voted in the past 6 years on issues that adversely directly impact you or your family?
What are you most concerned about when it comes to the current administration?
Are you aware that proper representation in the Senate and the House of Representatives can STOP adverse decisions?
Do you know what checks and balances are between the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Branches of government?
Where the balance of power currently stand in the Senate?
What 2 legislative groups comprises congress?
What is the role of a Senator vs. a State Representative?	